Veterinary & Selling Advice

All entries are sold subject to veterinary re-examination on the day of sale, however vendors may also provide a pre-sales veterinary certificate if they so wish. The pre-sales veterinary certificate does not constitute any warranty and all horses are still subject to post-sale veterinary examination on the day of sale if required by the purchaser. The pre-sales certificate is obtained via The Auctioneers and will only be accepted if it is completed within a 14 day period prior to sale day. The cost and disclosure of this certificate to The Auctioneers is the responsibility of the vendor. Please indicate on making an entry whether or not your entry will be sold with a pre-sales veterinary certificate.

Please note the following veterinary advice when completing your entry form and selling your entry.

1. Do not have your horse re-shod just before the Sale - likely to go lame.
2. Do not sell a horse with overgrown hooves or shoes just about to fall off - likely to go lame.
3. Always discuss with the Auctioneer any aspects of the horse that you feel may need to be declared.
4. Do not exaggerate your description e.g. "the ideal hunter" and yet it has a bowed tendon.
5. Put yourself in the position of the purchaser. If you would buy it then that is in the description to sell it on.
6. Do not bring a horse if it is lame, coughing, has a runny nose or any skin condition. Please ring the Auctioneer; or if discovered on arrival at the Sale do not unload the horse. Find the Auctioneer and discuss it.
7. The Conditions of Sale say that a sarcoid or sarcoid like lesions must be disclosed- this includes warts.
8. If the horse has been given or had used on it any substance e.g. drugs within the last eight days, this must be discussed with the Auctioneers.
9. If a horse is described as broken or riding, then it is expected to be produced for sale under saddle and under saddle for its veterinary examination. The vendor is responsible to supply all necessary tack and rider etc.

- (3) Where appropriate, the Buyer shall submit, along with his written notification, a Veterinary Certificate confirming any matters in respect of which complaint is made. - (4) In the event that the Buyer fails to make oral or written notification of his complaint within the above timescales, the Buyer shall not be allowed to return the horse to the Seller but must make payment for the horse in full unless the buyer can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Auctioneer that it was not reasonably practicable for the Buyer to discover the complaint and to notify the Auctioneer of the same within the above timescales. - (8) The Arbitrator may direct that the horse shall be subject to such trial as he may direct and the Seller and Buyer shall lend their full cooperation to such a trial.
- (9) If either the Seller or the buyer fail to comply with a direction of the Arbitrator or fail to pay any sum ordered to be paid by the Arbitrator, then the Arbitrator may at his own discretion decide not to proceed with the examination and determination of the complaint and may, if the Seller is in default, order that horse be returned to the Seller or may, if the Buyer is in default, order that the Buyer pay the full price to the Seller.
